

Press release

Claude Closky

Rarori

November 13 - December 23, 2010

Opening November 12, from 7pm

Claude Closky was born in 1963

Claude Closky has been working as an artist since the late 80s

Claude Closky has his studio on Rue Saint-Denis in Paris

Claude Closky stacks magazines and fills his book shelves with catalogues

Claude Closky collects editions of his colleagues

Claude Closky has an Eero Saarinen Tulip table and Konstantin Grcic Chair One chairs

Claude Closky loves disco music

Claude Closky works mainly on the computer

Claude Closky collects advertising

Claude Closky plays with language

Claude Closky observes our media

Claude Closky points out our automatisms

Claude Closky emphasizes our way of reading

Claude Closky repeats our repetitions

Claude Closky publishes books, many books

Claude Closky designed editions, also for Colette

Claude Closky has produced a series of wallpapers

Claude Closky creates websites for museums and institutions

Claude Closky makes collages

Claude Closky paints

Claude Closky codes videos

Claude Closky draws

Claude Closky ...